Tears of the Fisherman

Through case studies, personal testimony, and the author's 20 years of experience in after abortion counseling, you will encounter men devastated by unwanted abortions, the burden of shame and guilt carried by men who were passive at the time of the abortion decision or pressured their partners to abort, and the impact of abortion among the male prison population.

They Lied to Us Too

"They Lied to Us Too" focuses on men and the abortion issue. Whether these men participated in an abortion by convincing their partners to choose abortion, coerced her, or they did not know she was pregnant, these stories share how their lives were also impacted as a result.
